Where Are My Shoes (It's a big problem)

Andrea Arenas Gallego - Andrew (4° A)

Hello, my name is Nataly, today I am going to my Aunt`s Birthday, I am going at 7 pm and right now it is, "oh noooo 6 pm what am I going to do," I have one hour to brush my hair, put on my dress, do my nails, and... the worst part look for my shoes.

The time passes very quickly and every 5 minutes my mom said, "Naty we are going in 10 minutes," I was almost ready the only thing I was missing were my shoes. I looked for them in all the house but it was a mystery, so I went to my bed and I thought for a very long time where I left my shoes. I am not shure but I think I saw a big purple dinosaur that was trying to tell me where were my shoes. He said, "They are in the garden because your dog Cookie hid them right there." But in his language.

So I understood kitchen or something like that, so I went to the kitchen and what do you think happened? I didn't find them! And in that moment I remembered that my dad had a dictionary of dinosaur's language, so I looked for it and the word "goigo" was garden! I looked in the favorite hiding place of my dog and in that moment my mom shouted, "Naty we are going to be late, come now." So I looked very very quickly in that place I found them!. Since that day I know where are my shoes.
