

XXVII
Encuentro
Literario

COLEGIO MARYMOUNT

CORPORACIÓN COMITÉ CULTURAL MARYMOUNT

CON LA COLABORACIÓN DE:
EL DEPARTAMENTO DE LENGUA CASTELLANA
EL DEPARTAMENTO DE INGLÉS
EL DEPARTAMENTO DE FRANCÉS

XXVII ENCUENTRO LITERARIO
TRANSICIÓN A UNDÉCIMO GRADO

STORY TELLING CONTEST
3TH - 11TH GRADE

FRANCÉS
DÉCIMO A UNDÉCIMO GRADO

2012

QUINTO

Antonia García Duque- Avenis (5°B)

"Come Back!"

It was 7:00 a.m. and Lizzie was still sleeping. There was a beautiful rainbow across the sky and the end of it was in Lizzie's room. Larry the Leprechaun knew he had to go to the end of the rainbow to get his pot of gold so he ran and ran until he reached the end of the rainbow, when he finally got there he realized that he didn't know how to get into the bedroom, then he said, "I'll go in through the window!" Larry gently opened the window and crept in, he searched for the pot of gold and said, "Bingo!" He walked to the pot of gold and suddenly, "BOOM!" the pot of gold fell over! Larry tried to grab all the gold and run out of the house. Unfortunately, Lizzie started to wake up slowly, she stretched and opened her eyes. When she got a glimpse of the little figure in green she was frightened. It took about a minute for her to figure out it was a leprechaun.

Lizzie loved Leprechauns. As a matter of fact she wanted to be a leprechaun for Halloween. Excitedly, she grabbed her backpack and started to run after Larry! Lizzie yelled "Come back!" but the leprechaun wouldn't listen, he just kept running. There was a problem for Larry, all his gold coins were falling! "You forgot something!" Abby yelled. "You don't fool me, little girl!" Larry said. Lizzie was a bit excited that a leprechaun talked to her for the first time, but was kind of sad that he didn't think that she was telling the truth.

Encuentro Literario XXVII

Meanwhile, Lizzie was grabbing all the gold coins that fell. Even though she was upset with him for not believing her, she didn't want him to lose all his gold coins. Larry was getting to the end of the rainbow and Lizzie's backpack was holding her down because of all the gold. Larry finally got to the end of the rainbow and was about to open the door to Leprechaun Land when Lizzie shouted out, "Wait, I have all your gold!" Larry didn't have anything to lose. If she tried to capture him he would just open the door and run in. So Larry said "I don't believe you." Suddenly Lizzie took her backpack off her shoulders, opened it and showed it to Larry. When Larry saw it all his gold was in there.

he was shocked that Lizzie was telling the truth! Larry told Lizzie that he was sorry and gave her ten golden coins. Lizzie was very excited and ran to her house to show her parents the gold coins.